Head's hello

Dear Parents and Carers,

Welcome to our first newsletter of the new academic year.

It has been great to welcome pupils back to school and to also welcome quite a few new pupils as well - not just in Reception but across the school. Everyone has settled brilliantly into their new classes, and it has been lovely to see our children looking so smart and ready to learn. Classes have already started our new Forest School curriculum and this week Go Active started to teach our Year 2 and KS2 children in their PE sessions so there is a lot going on!

After School Clubs will start during the week beginning 16th September and details have already been sent out about the range of clubs available this half term. Many of our clubs will change on a half termly basis as our aim is to enable our pupils to experience as many different activities as possible over the year.

Singing lessons

We are fortunate to have been able to arrange a very experienced singing teacher, Alison Harvey, to deliver individual singing lessons at school on a Tuesday afternoon. We have spoken to the children about this today and your child may bring a letter home with them if they are interested.

Parent Forum

This year we would like to set up a Parent Forum - this is a group who will represent the parent community and meet with school leadership regularly to feedback parental views or suggestions. Attached to this communication are the terms of reference for our Parent Forum and more details about what the forum entails and when it will meet. If you are interested in being a Parent Forum representative for your child's class, please contact the school office via Dojo by Friday 20th September. (If there are more than two parents interested from each class, an election will be held.) The first meeting will be held before half term.

Wishing you all a lovely weekend.

Mrs. Elaine Badger

2023/24

Dear Parent/Carer

Here at Lostwithiel School, we recognise that there are occasions when it is appropriate to authorise an absence, such as when a pupil is genuinely too ill to attend school, has a medical appointment that cannot be taken outside of school hours or a request for leave has been agreed in exceptional circumstances.

However, the Government does not support parents taking children out of school unless the school agrees this is appropriate under 'exceptional circumstances'. Any request for leave should be made in writing to the Headteacher using the school's request form.

If your child is absent from school without authorisation, you will be committing an offence under the Education Act 1996. We may submit a request to Cornwall Council for a Penalty Notice to be issued, in accordance with Sections 444A and 444B of the said Act. Penalty Notices are issued per liable parent, per child and each carry a fine of £60 if paid within 21 days or £120 if paid after this but within 28 days. Failure to pay the Penalty Notice may result in legal action. Absence not authorised by the school may result in a prosecution in the Magistrates' Court under Section 444(1) or Section 444(1A) of the Education Act 1996, leading to a fine of up to £2,500 and/or a custodial sentence. Cornwall Council may also apply for the costs incurred in taking the matter to Court.

'Parent' as set out in Section 576 of the Education Act 1996, defines parent to include: natural parents, whether they are married or not; any person or body who has parental responsibility for a child (as defined by the Children Act 1989) and; any person who, although not a natural parent, has care of a child. Having care of a child means a person with whom a child lives and who looks after a child, irrespective of what their relationship is with said child.

You are welcome to contact the school to discuss any concerns you may have regarding this or if you feel you would like advice or support in helping your child attend more regularly. Lostwithiel School is committed to maximising the education of all its pupils and aims to work with parents to ensure this can be achieved.

The decision to submit a request for the issue of a Penalty Notice will be considered when a child's attendance is deemed to be 'not regular'. The definition of 'not regular' in this instance is when it is below the threshold set by Cornwall Education Learning Trust (CELT). For all CELT schools, this attendance threshold is set at 96%, in line with national attendance data. In the Autumn Term, a child's attendance for the previous academic year will be considered before deciding on a course of action. From January onwards, the decision will be based on attendance data from the current academic year.

Yours sincerely

Elaine Badger
Headteacher
